Overview

It is widely regarded that social science research (SSR) enhances our understanding of the society and its functioning, provides policy inputs for socio-economic development and generates new ideas and information that could be used for teaching and research. Thus, social science research renders vital services to the society and the country.

India has a long and rich tradition of social sciences teaching and research. Takshashila, Nalanda, Vikramashila, Valabhi and Pushpagiri Universities, to name a few, flourished as global centres of learning in different parts of India. Social science teaching and research, however, made a formal beginning with the introduction of modern university system in the second half of the 19th century when University of Mumbai (1857), University of Madras (1857), University of Calcutta (1857), Allahabad University (1875) etc. were established. The real breakthrough came only after Independence when higher education system expanded at a rapid rate as a part of the programme of planned socio-economic development. As the country's development process threw up numerous and diverse problems that required extensive research and analysis, Government of India established a Committee for Social Science Research under the Chairmanship of Professor V.K.R.V Rao in 1965 to survey the social science research scenario in the country and make recommendations to accelerate the progress. This led to the establishment of the Indian Council of Social Science Research (ICSSR) in 1969 to promote and fund social science research in the country. The ICSSR is an autonomous body under the Ministry of Human Resource Development and a premier research organisation with six Regional Centres, 24 Research Institutes and five Recognised Research Institutes located in different parts of India.

The ICSSR's objectives as spelt out in its Memorandum of Association are the following:

- Review progress of Social Science Research and advise the Government on policy issues ;
- Fund and promote Social Science Research in Universities/Colleges/ Research Institutes;
- Provide Ph.D., Post Doctoral, Senior & National Fellowships to researchers & faculties;
- Grant Minor, Major & Collaborative Research Projects to faculties and researchers;
- Support seminars and conferences to disseminate social science research findings;
- Sponsor training and capacity building programmes for young researchers and faculties;

- Encourage international collaboration in research with foreign countries and funding agencies;
- Indicate periodic themes in neglected and new critical areas of research;
- Provide library, documentation, data and online services for social science research; and
- Support publication of journals and books & strengthen professional social science associations/organizations.

During the last forty-eight years of its establishment, the ICSSR has been actively promoting and funding social science research in the country. It provides regular maintenance and development grants to all its research institutes on matching basis to study local issues from multi-disciplinary perspective. The Council has international collaboration agreements with 11 countries in the form of exchange of scholars and collaborative and joint research projects/seminars/conferences/publications. The ICSSR also participates in the activities of the international social science organizations like International Federation of Social Science Organisations (Quezon City, Philippines), International Social Science Council (Paris, France), Association of Asian Social Science Research Councils (Canberra, Australia), Science Council of Asia (Tokyo, Japan) etc. as their important member. Since its inception, the ICSSR has awarded thousands of Doctoral, Post-Doctoral, Senior and National Fellowships, granted several thousands major, minor and collaborative research projects, provided financial assistance to numerus scholars for paper presentation in seminars/data collection abroad, sponsored several hundred training & capacity building programmes for young faculties and researchers, funded numerous national and international conferences, provided financial assistance to hundreds of scholars and professional organizations for publication of their research report/journals, conducted six rounds of surveys of current state of research in various social science disciplines and provided research services like library, documentation, data and e-resources to several hundred social scientists. Moreover, the ICSSR has been offering its research-based advice to the Government of India on relevant academic issues and contributed in the Newton-Vivekanand program with the UK, the establishment of the Ambedkar University of Social Sciences at Mhow, Madhya Pradesh etc. It has also carried out studies for various Ministries such as the Ministry of Social Justice & Empowerment, Ministry of Minority Affairs etc. from time to time.

This is the 48th Annual Report of the Indian Council of Social Science Research (ICSSR) that covers the Council's activities from 1st April, 2016 to 31st March, 2017. The ICSSR's highest decision making body, known as the Council, has 26 members, which includes the ICSSR Chairman, 18 social scientists, 6 Government representatives and a Member Secretary appointed by the ICSSR with the approval of the Government of India. The list containing members of the Governing Council is given at Appendix – 1.

The Member Secretary heads the ICSSR Secretariat consisting of Directors, Deputy Directors, Assistant Directors and other officials. The ICSSR's official staffs, apart from their normal official duties, have contributed a number of research papers and delivered lectures during the reporting year.

During the year 2016-17, the ICSSR provided financial support to 488 research projects and awarded 774 fellowships to scholars and faculties to work on a variety of issues of their interest. Other ICSSR programmes and schemes that benefited scholars, faculties and organisations are given in the Table 1.1.

Research Promotion

Research Projects (Responsive)

Funding of Research Projects is one of the most important activities of Indian Council of Social Science Research. Under this programme, the ICSSR provides grant to social science scholars for conducting research on specific themes and issues as proposed by the applicants. In general, grants under this head are awarded to a study which proposes to contribute at a theoretical and/or conceptual level or aimed at generation of new field work based data and policy implications thereof. The studies could be both macro and micro in nature. The broad disciplines of study may belong to anyone of the following social science disciplines or interdisciplinary in nature:

- I) Sociology and Social Anthropology
- II) Political Science / Public Adm. and Allied disciplines
- III) Economics and Allied disciplines
- IV) International Studies
- V) Social Geography and Population Studies
- VI) Commerce and Management
- VII) Social Psychology and Allied disciplines

VIII) Education and Allied disciplines

IX) Social Linguistics/Socio-Cultural and Allied disciplines

X) Law, International Law and Allied disciplines

XI) National Security and Strategic Studies

XII) Any other Social Science Discipline

Objectives:

The objectives of the Research Project scheme is to support independent research and to achieve excellence in research activities in the social sciences.

The specific objectives of the scheme are:

- to support high quality independent programmes of research;
- to provide opportunities for training of future researchers;
- to contribute to the development of new theoretical or methodological approaches to research;
- to maintain and sustain varied disciplinary research activities;
- to foster and promote collaborative, multidisciplinary research activities

- among researchers in the social sciences and;
- to facilitate communication of research outputs both within and beyond the academic community as well as to provide policy inputs to administrators and policy makers.

Earlier known as Research Projects (Responsive), this scheme is now called as major and minor research projects after approval by the Council.

During the year 2016-17, total 456 research projects were sanctioned by the ICSSR including 185 projects sanctioned under Responsive and 271 projects under Major & Minor Projects. The final reports of 272 responsive research projects sanctioned in the past were received during the reporting year. The details of Research Projects sanctioned and final project reports received during the year have been given in Appendix-3.

Research Programmes

Research Studies (Sponsored) programme is a series of research projects conducted simultaneously or sequentially on themes of critical significance, focus on the issues of contemporary relevance, less explored areas of study and involves policy implications.

The ICSSR expects that these research programmes will develop new understanding and insight on issues which are likely to make significant contributions to existing scholarship in terms of concept, theory, methodology and research outcomes; the studies may be inter-disciplinary, inter departmental or inter-institutional. However, high impact studies which are broad in character but fall within the ambit of a single discipline may also be considered and the proposals should be able to demonstrate that the themes of the proposed research are of significant contemporary relevance and/or in emerging and neglected areas of research.

The ICSSR, under its 'Sponsored Studies Programme', invited proposals from individual/group of scholars/institutions for commissioning research studies on 31 themes as thrust areas of social science research. This scheme has now been renamed as Research Programmes after its approval by the Council.

During the reporting year, 32 Research Studies were sanctioned by the ICSSR including three to SC and one to ST category. A total of 33 final reports of the earlier sanctioned sponsored projects have been received during the year. The details of sanctioned research programmes and final projects received have been given in Appendix-3.

National Fellowships

ICSSR National Fellowships are aimed at providing opportunities to eminent Indian Social Scientists to engage themselves in full-time research that have the potential to contribute to advancement of knowledge in social sciences on important themes of their choice or to write books based on their research. The ICSSR so far awarded 163 National Fellowships. During the year under review, no fresh awards were made and eight final reports were received. The ICSSR Doctoral Fellowships are awarded under its Centrally-Administered Doctoral Fellowship Schemes and Institutional Doctoral Fellowship Scheme. In case of Centrally-Administered schemes, the fellowships are awarded and monitored directly by ICSSR and the concerned doctoral fellows are affiliated to a University or College whereas under the Institutional scheme, the doctoral fellows are affiliated to and monitored by an ICSSR Sponsored / Recognized Research Institute. Presently, the Institutional Fellowships are given by 18 ICSSR Research Institutes.

Since 1969, a total of 6995 Doctoral Fellowships have been awarded by ICSSR as may be seen in the Table 2.5.

National and International Seminars

By providing partial financial assistance to organize national and international seminars/conferences in India, the ICSSR Seminar Grant Scheme aims at facilitating research in different disciplines of social sciences and interdisciplinary areas that provide opportunities to national and international social science researchers, academicians and scholars to exchange views and opinions, address and debate research questions on themes of contemporary and policy relevance and generate academic research output on important social issues. Another major objective has been to promote seminar activities in backward and neglected areas and encourage scholars from special categories like SC, ST, OBC, Minority and Woman.

During the year, the ICSSR provided grants to 353 proposals for organising national and international seminars in India. The lists of seminar proposals approved including their sanctioned amount and convener's category under the National & International Seminars/Conferences categories for the year 2016-17 has been given at Appendix-6.

Training and Capacity Building Programme

The ICSSR provides grant to the social science faculty for organizing Research Methodology Course (RMC) for M. Phil/PhD/PDF scholars in social sciences. The aim of the course is to develop writing and research skills of the young scholars and develop their potential as future academicians/social science researcher.

Similarly the objective of the Capacity Building Programme (CBP) is to develop research capabilities among young faculty in Social Sciences. It aims to develop writing and research skills among young Lecturers/Assistant Professors in Social Science disciplines.

National Social Science Documentation Centre (NASSDOC), a constituent unit of ICSSR, is an epitome of library and information support services in the field of social sciences. Meeting the challenges posed by technology driven world, it exemplifies the use of digital environment for creating, applying and utilizing information with its automated library collection, web OPAC, online databases / e-resources etc. It has effectively attuned itself to the web-enabled information environment and is marching ahead.

Library and Reference Service

The NASSDOC has a wide range of collection, of reference sources like bibliographies, encyclopaedias, directories etc.; grey collection consisting of doctoral theses, research project reports; special collection on research methodology, research surveys on all social science disciplines including library & information science and computer & information technology (39000). The collection is also augmented by 12,000 bound volumes of journals. The library is open from 9:30 AM to 6:00 PM from Monday to Saturday and is closed on Sundays and all gazetted holidays.

A total number of 4710 research scholars visited NASSDOC during the year 2016-17. A large number of reference queries were attended on telephone, in person and through correspondence/ e-mail/ fax/ etc. Research related information was provided to scholars from NASSDOC's collection, its in-house databases and by exploring electronic sources and several other internet based resources.

Research Institutes

Sponsoring of Research Institutes outside the scope of the University Grants Commission has been one of the major programmes of the Indian Council of Social Science Research in enlarging the base of social science knowledge, improving the quality of research, and promoting an interdisciplinary perspective. The Council, therefore provides maintenance and development grant to 24 Research Institutes. These Institutes constitute an important mechanism for implementing the Council's policy of dispersal of research talents and building up of research capabilities in the different regions of the country, particularly in the areas where social science research is not yet well developed.

The Research Institutes have established close links with the scholars in the region as well as elsewhere through various activities such as seminars, workshops, training and consultancy programmes. Some of the Institutes are closely associated with national and state level planning and development agencies, and have thereby strengthened the links between research and policy making.

Each Institute determines its own direction of research, which includes a wide spectrum of subjects related to agricultural and rural development, industrial structure and growth, income distribution and poverty, employment and wages, inter-regional differences in levels of development, education, health, nutrition, problems of weaker sections of society including women, energy, technology, ecology and environment, and social, cultural and institutional aspects of development. Thus, research studies have generated substantial empirical knowledge of the structure of Indian economy, polity and society and their dynamics both at the national and regional levels.

During the last five years, 1300 research projects have been completed by the Institutes, while 2007 are on-going. These cover a wide spectrum of issues relating to areas that are already mentioned above. What is more significant in these efforts is that they are not only interdisciplinary in character, but also focused on regional and local problems. In this process, they have become centres of research for the region's specific issues and have greatly contributed to an awareness of the nature of development problems and potential of the country as a whole. In terms of publications, the Institutes have brought out 698 books and 911 working papers during the last five years.

Another important activity, that has been given importance by the Council, is training of young social scientists by the research Institutes through M.Phil. and Ph.D. programmes, workshops and seminars. During the last five years, 190 Ph.Ds. have been produced and 2250 scholars have been working on their Ph.Ds. The Council can legitimately take pride in its role in promoting the research and training efforts made by the Research Institutes. A total of 278 projects were completed in these Institutes during the year under report. The total number of ongoing studies at the end of the year was 321.

Research Institutes disseminate the results of their research studies in the form of published books, mimeographs, working/occasional papers, etc. During the year under report, the number of books/ reports published was 140, monographs/mimeographs were 48 and working/occasional papers 191. The number of research papers published was 566.

The Institutes also undertakes training of young social scientists and assist fresh researchers in designing and conducting their research. To this end, doctoral fellowships have been provided to these institutes. Some of the Institutes have been assisting in teaching and training programmes for M.Phil. and Ph.D. students. In addition, as per the Council's policy, they participate in postgraduate teaching, research guidance in the universities and also involve the university teachers in their research programmes. During the year, 438 scholars were working under the guidance of the faculties of the research institutes, 31 were awarded Ph.D. degrees and 43 scholars submitted their doctoral dissertations. 8. GOVERNMENT GRANTS/SUBSIDES

8.1 Government grants are accounted on realisation basis. However, where a sanction for release of grant pertaining to the financial year is received before 31st March and the grant is actually received in the next financial year, the grant is accounted on accrual basis and an equal amount is shown as recoverable from the Grantor.

8.2 To the extent utilized towards capital expenditure (on accrual basis) government grants are transferred to the Capital Fund.

8.3 Government grants for meeting Revenue Expenditure (on accrual basis) are treated, to the extent utilized as income of the year in which they are realised.

8.4 Unutilized grants (including advances paid out of such grants) are carried forward and exhibited as a liability in the Balance Sheet.

8.5 Government grants/Non-Government Grants are treated as Revenue/Capital Grants based on the usage/mandate of Grant.

9. FOREIGN CURRENCY TRANSACTIONS

9.1 Transactions denominated in foreign currency are accounted at the exchange rate prevailing at the date of the transaction.

10. RETIREMENT BENEFITS

10.1 Liability towards gratuity payable on death/retirement of employees is accounted based on actual basis.

10.2 Leave encashment benefit to the employees is accounted based on actual basis.

11. EARMARKED/ ENDOWMENT FUNDS

11.1 The long terms funds are earmarked for specific purposes. Each of the funds has a separate bank account. Those with large balances also have investments on Government Securities, Debentures ad Bonds and Term Deposits with Banks. The assets created out of Earmarked Funds where the ownership Vests in the Institution, are merged with the assets of the Institution by crediting an equal amount to the Capital Fund. The balance in the respective funds is carried forward and is represented on the assets side by the balance at Bank, Investments and accrued interest.

11.2 Endowments are funds received from various individual donors, Trusts and other organisations, for establishing Chairs and for Medals & Prizes, as specified by the Donors. While each of the Endowment funds has its own investment there is one savings bank account for all the Endowment funds, as the un-invested balances against them are negligible.

The income from investments of each Endowment Fund is added to the Fund. The interest on Savings Ban a/c is allocated to all the Endowment funds in the ratio of the year end closing balances in each fund. The expenditure on Medals & Prizes is met from the interest earned on investment of the respective Endowment Funds and the balances is carried forward. In respect of Chairs, however, the corpus of the Endowment is also used.

The balances are represented by Investment in RBI Bonds and Fixed Deposits and balance in the Saving Bank Account common for all Endowments, and Accrued Interest on Investments.

12. STATUS OF REGIONAL CENTRES

12.1 Un-audited Accounts of all Regional Centres are being incorporated with Council's accounts since 2005-06 onwards.

13. INCOME TAX

The income of the Institution is exempt from Income Tax under Section 10 (23 C) of the Income Tax Act. No provision for tax is therefore made in the accounts.
